

Fire Safety and Prevention Websites

www.firewise.org - Fire safety and prevention education, training and advocacy.

www.firesafecouncil.org - network of local groups that helps address fire issues.

www.cafirealliance.org - fire safety education and training.

www.fire.ca.gov/php/education.php - CDF's page on fire safety education. Links to other organizations.

www.fs.fed.us/fire/prev_ed/index.html - USFS's page on fire safety education. Lots of links.

www.americanforests.org - national non-profit that runs Wilfire ReLeaf grant program. Grant application available online.

Urban Forestry Websites

- www.ufe.org - Urban Forest Ecosystems Institute @ Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. Includes on-line tree selection software SelecTree. Sponsored by CDF and USFS.
- www.treelink.org - a national urban forestry resource website with lots of additional links.
- www.treesaregood.com - the International Society of Arboriculture public information pages.
- <http://www.fs.fed.us/psw/programs/cufr/> - the Western Center For Urban Forest Research. Lots of free downloads. Research publications, presentations, etc.
- www.americanforests.org - a national urban forestry advocacy non-profit organization. Over 100 years old.
- www.arborday.org - the National Arbor Day Foundation. Urban Forestry advocacy non-profit. Gives an award to cities, Tree City USA. Provides training and information.
- www.natlarb.org - the Tree Care Industry Association. Lots of good information on tree care.
- www.fs.fed.us/ucf - The United States Department of Agriculture Forest Service (USFS). Oversees all urban forestry on the national level. Provides funding to state programs and national non-profits. Does research.
- www.caufc.org - the California Urban Forest Council. Advocates for urban forestry. Provides training workshops. Certifies urban foresters. Has 7 regional councils.
- www.californiareleaf.org - the California ReLeaf Network. An organization comprised of non-profits dedicated to urban forestry throughout California.
- <http://www.fire.ca.gov/resourcemanagement/urbanforestry> - the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF), Urban Forestry Program site. Delivers Urban Forestry in California. Provides grants to municipalities and non-profits. Provides training, education and outreach. Most of CDF's Urban Forestry information is on www.ufe.org.

<http://www.caltrees.org/index.html> - California Community Forest Foundation. Good educational resource.

<http://www.cfr.washington.edu/research.envmind/> - Research on social aspects of urban forestry.

<http://www.greenlaws.lsu.edu/> - a site with compilations of various environmental laws, including ordinances.

<http://actrees.org/site/index.php> - a national urban forestry NPO.

<http://www.umass.edu/urbantree/> - Northeast Urban Forestry Research Center, USFS.

<http://plants.usda.gov/> - NRCS database for plant material selection.

<http://www.lgean.org> - Local Government Environmental Assistance Network